Second Contract Awarded For Customs Building

Ward & Son, Local Contractors, Awarded Contract For Completion Of Building; To Be One Storey Structure Of Brick Veneer

The Customs building being erected at the foot of Beacon Avenue, opposite the Sidney Hotel, has now entered the second stage of its construction!

A few months ago H. W. Dutton, a local contractor, completed a contract of excavating for the basement, putting in the foundations, concrete basement, grading and levelling of the property.

Now Chas. Ward & Son, local contractors, have been awarded the contract for the completion of the structure.

The building is to be of a brick veneer with shingled roof, one storey in height; the floors to be of hardwood maple, and the window frames steel. The building itself is 24 feet by 36 feet, with a canopy 24 feet by 24 feet attached on the north side. Running from the wharf to and under the canopy and on onto Beacon Avenue will be an 18-foot road with a five-foot sidewalk along side.

The property fronting on Beacon Avenue has a frontage of 200 feet and a depth of 100 feet. At the seafont there is an additional attached area that runs off at an angle to the northeast, extending slightly beyond the government breakwater and landing floats, which brings the enclosed water area into the property as well. This will give the Customs a place to impound boats when necessary.

The building is being constructed under the supervision of the Department of Customs and Excise rather than under the Department of Public Works, this being made possible by letting contracts that do not exceed $5,000 at any one time. There will likely be a further contract given out for the landscaping of the grounds. The entire cost, we understand, will be upwards of $10,000.

When the building and new roadway from the wharf is complete local citizens and others familiar with the approach to the wharf will observe a real transformation, for the present office building adjoining the archway will be removed in order to construct the road, and traffic from the American ferries will pass to the north of the archway to the north side of the Customs building.

It is planned to leave the arch as is, it being a substantial and more or less artistic structure.

It is expected that the building will be completed by the end of September.

Ardmore Grange Sees Delightful Gathering

A very pleasant and enjoyable afternoon was spent on Monday, Aug. 14th, at "Ardmore Grange," the home of General R. J. Gwynne, C.M.G., and Mrs. Gwynne, West Road, when Miss Evelyn Gwynne entertained members of the Evening Branch, St. Andrew's and Holy Trinity Women's Auxiliary and a number of friends numbering over 40.

The afternoon was spent in playing lawn tennis, croquet and darts for those who liked active games, while others wandered about the gardens and enjoyed the warm sunshine.

Refreshments were served in the cool shade on the verandah.

A pleasant surprise occurred when Rev. T. M. Hughes and Mrs. Hughes and their sons Keveit and Norman paid a short visit on their way home to Quamichan.

PLOT OF KING MAKER TRAPS INNOCENT GIRL

GANGES, Aug. 16.—A powerful drama of king makers and court intrigue is told in "Nine Days A Queen" (The Story of Lady Jane Grey), co-starring Cedric Hardwicke and Nova Pilbeam and showing at the Rex Theatre, Ganges, Friday and Saturday this week.

With all the pomp and pageantry of "The Private Life of Henry VIII" this romantic drama of sixteenth century Tudor England is said to surpass in sheer power and suspense the top efforts of the most imaginative fiction writers.

Produced by GB Pictures with infinite care and authenticity, mounted lavishly, and painstakingly cast in even the most minor roles, "Nine Days A Queen" is as close a reproduction of yesterday's epochal events as "The March of Time" is of today's.

The story begins with the death of Henry VIII and his curse on any of his ambitious nobles who shall interfere with the order of succession named by him—his son Edward, his daughters Mary and Elizabeth and, only if they should die without issue, Lady Jane Grey.

The brief reign of the sickly child king, Edward VI, opens with the Protectorate of his uncle, Edward Seymour, and the attempt of the Protector's brother, Thomas, to make a pawn of the innocent young Jane Grey. The child is brought to court, awaiting the moment when the ailing Edward shall die, anticipating that Mary will be barred from the throne as a Catholic and Elizabeth as illegitimate.

But Thomas, as Henry VIII had told him, was not clever. His plotting and the enmity between the brothers is noticed by the Earl of Warwick, who has been playing a game of cat-and-mouse and only too soon gets his chance to strike—and in striking, seals his own fate.

This fascinating chapter in English history has been somewhat neglected by writers and film makers because its drama and romance was overshadowed by the glamour of Henry VIII's reign, immediately preceding it. However, Robert Stevenson has fashioned the historic events that led up to the marriage and brief rule of Lady Jane Grey into a powerful drama and directed it himself. Miles Malleson wrote the dialogue.

Supporting Hardwicke and Nova Pilbeam are John Mills, Desmond Tester, Frank Cellier, Sybil Thorndike, Gwen Ffrangcon-Davies, Leslie Perrins, Felix Aylmer and many others.

WEDDING AT ST. MARK'S PRETTY AFFAIR

GANGES, Aug. 16.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mark's Church, Central Settlement, Thursday, Aug. 10th, when, at 1:30 o'clock, Violet Daphne, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Case Morris of North Salt Spring, became the bride of Mr. Vivian Hamilton Graham, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Graham of Sidney, Vancouver Island.

The Rev. C. H. Popham, vicar of the parish, officiated. Mrs. G. B. Young played the wedding music as the bridal party entered and left the church and accompanied the hymn sung by the congregation, "Lead Us Heavenly Father, Lead Us."

The church had been artistically decorated by the friends of the bride and the masses of summer flowers made a pretty background for the ceremony. On the altar white asters, white stocks and gypsophila were arranged. Gladioli, delphiniums, stocks and Shasta daisies were used in the chancel and on the chancel steps; posies of stocks, roses and gypsophila, tied with white satin ribbon, marked the guest pews.

The bride, who was given away by her father, made a lovely picture as she entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. Her exquisite gown was of white marquisette crepe, with high necked bolero and long sleeves, edged with narrow ruching; a shirred high waist-line and the long, very full skirt was trimmed with three rows of wide lace insertion, the bottom row being edged with narrow lace grill. She wore a large white, baku straw hat, trimmed with white grosgrain ribbon and carried a bouquet of scarlet carnations, maidenhair fern and gypsophila, tied with long streamers of white satin ribbon.

The maid of honor, Miss Winsome Morris, sister of the bride, and the two bridesmaids, Miss Louise Layard and Miss Peggy Rowan, were dressed alike, in most attractive Empire gowns of Queen's blue georgette, with long full skirts; both the tight-fitting bodices and short sleeves were shirred and trimmed with narrow bands of dusty pink velvet ribbon. Broader bands of the same tied on the tiny matching hats, trimmed with pink and champagne ostrich tips. They carried bouquets of pink and blue larkspur, maidenhair fern and gypsophila, tied with bows of matching ribbon.

The best man was Mr. Fred Morris.

Following the ceremony, about 130 guests were entertained at the home of the bride's parents where summer flowers were arranged throughout the rooms and hall. The reception was held on the tree-shaded lawn, where the bride and bridegroom stood to receive the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.

Mrs. V. C. Morris welcomed the guests in an exceedingly smart costume of figured natural colored silk linen with sleeveless bolero, large trimmed summer felt hat of old gold, old gold bag and gloves and matching corsage bouquet of gerberas. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Graham, mother of the bridegroom, who wore a very attractive suit of jade green, large hat of natural color straw with flower to tone and matching accessories.

On a table apart stood the large, square wedding cake, decorated with trails of fern and white satin ribbon. It was surmounted by a flat silver ornament, containing a Victorian bouquet of Sweetheart roses; on each corner were placed tiny posies of shell-pink carnations and gypsophila. Prior to the cutting of the cake by the bride, the toast was proposed by the bride's uncle, Mr. A. B. Cartwright, and responded to by the groom. The toast to the bridesmaids was proposed by Mr. N. W. Wilson.

Later in the day the bride and groom left, by afternoon boat, for Vancouver en route for the United States. For travelling the bride wore a teal blue gaberdine suit, white turban and white accessories. On their return from the honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Graham will make their home in Vancouver.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ley, Miss E. Lang, Miss Layard, Messrs. Michael and David Ley, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Graham; Mrs. Harold Payne, Sidney; Mrs. A. Rowan, Mrs. D. Howden, Miss M. Ingham, Miss Dora Rowan, Vancouver; Mrs. Ian Fox, Bowen Island, and others.

Bank Of Montreal Issues Crop Report

Herewith follows a report on crop conditions throughout the province of British Columbia, issued by the Bank of Montreal:

"Cutting of a good second alfalfa crop is proceeding under ideal weather conditions. Semi-ripe tomatoes are moving in fair volume. An average potato crop is anticipated and practically all the early varieties are already sold. Other vegetables are progressing favorably. Hops are in excellent condition. To some extent apples are sizing too large for the export market, but the condition of the crop continues promising. Early peaches and pears are being picked and average crops are anticipated. Pests have increased with the hot weather but are reported under control. Pasturage is abundant."

BIG PICNIC HELD AT FULFORD

FULFORD, Aug. 16.—On Wednesday, August 9th, the B.C. Electric Office Employees' Association held its annual picnic at Fulford Harbour, 179 being in the group.

The party left in five special buses at 9 a.m. from Victoria, arriving at Fulford at 11:45 a.m., where transportation was provided to the picnic grounds.

Catering for the picnic was under the capable management of Mr. and Mrs. D. O'Brien of Fulford Inn. Owing to the large number of guests the Community Hall was hired by Mr. O'Brien for the occasion; excellent meals were provided. Luncheon was served at 12:30 in the dining room of the hall, the table at which the executive were seated was placed at the head of the room, two long tables being placed at each side; these were prettily decorated with large bowls of golden rod and other late summer flowers, placed at intervals down the tables.

Mrs. O'Brien was assisted in serving by Mrs. Edgar Heald, Mrs. Harmon Briggs and the Misses Constance Heald and Lavina Briggs.

In the afternoon a varied program of sports were arranged in Mr. Shaw's field, ending with a soft ball game at 4 p.m.

Bathing was enjoyed by a large number at the beach at Fulford, where several swimming events were run off.

The party sat down to dinner at 6 p.m. after which an impromptu dance was organized, directed by Mr. P. Thompson. The music was supplied by Mrs. Harland.

Just prior to leaving on the return trip to Victoria the prizes for the events were presented by Mr. A. T. Goward, vice-president of the company.

The president of the association, Mr. R. B. Mathews, extended appreciative thanks to the members of the picnic committee and also expressed his pleasure at being able to be present.

Mr. H. Campbell on the day prior to the picnic visited the island and made all arrangements for same.

Mr. Goward, before leaving, expressed sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien for their great help and co-operation.

The return trip to Victoria was made at 7:30 p.m.

GRANTHAM SPEAKS AT CORDOVA BAY

CORDOVA BAY, Aug. 16.—"Young people are seeing that they are up against problems involving not just themselves, their families, or communities, but the nation and the world," declared Ronald Grantham, Nanaimo Riding CCF federal candidate, at a Cordova Bay rally, on Friday, organized by the Cordova Bay branch of the Co-operative Commonwealth Youth Movement.

"Present conditions are unchristian, undemocratic, unintelligent, and must be changed," said the candidate, after outlining the rise of capitalism, the concentration of wealth, the mass poverty and lack of opportunity for youth.

"We can have security and abundance. Fear of social change is needless at the threshold of an age of plenty. We must plan or perish," Mr. Grantham said.

"The people of New Zealand are on their way to this planned society. They built up their Labor (Please turn to Page Three)

Labor Day Program At Sidney Shaping Up Very Nicely

Public Meeting Called For Friday Night At Stacey Hall To Decide Question Of Adding School Sports To The Program

The big Labor Day celebration planned by the North Saanich War Memorial Park Society is away to a flying start! We are informed that already no less than four entries are in for the soft ball knockout tournament.

The sixth annual Stacey Bicycle Races will be run also, and this affair has grown to great proportions during the last few years and draws hundreds of spectators from the peninsula and islands and Victoria, while contestants from Vancouver were here last year to compete.

There is a movement on foot, we understand, to run off a school sports program as well for the various trophies and cups available for such an event. As this would be open to all schools on the peninsula and islands, it is a big undertaking and hence a public meeting is being called at Stacey's Hall next Friday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, to ascertain if enough people in the district will volunteer to assist in putting such a sports program over. It will require team-work and there is no time to be lost if the idea is to be carried out successfully. So, don't forget Friday night's meeting if you are a local resident and wish to help.

Displayless Windows Help Retail Business

Doing away with window displays has resulted in substantial increases in sales for a variety chain of stores. Owners of the chain, after experimenting with the new idea in a single store, have now converted virtually all their stores to the displayless window type.

Other advantages of eliminating window displays are also important, according to a description of the store design published in Chain Store Age. An appreciable increase in selling space is obtained through extension of the counters to the entrance area and elimination of behind-the-counter space along side walls. The appearance of interior displays has been improved as the display-men can now give full time to arranging counter set-ups.

Minimum stock investments are also maintained because it is not now necessary to order extra merchandise for window use, and mark-downs on merchandise subject to deterioration when displayed in windows are avoided. With the whole store interior visible to the street, shoplifting is discouraged.

"We are at a cross roads in history, one way lies fascism and war, the other way is the CCF way to socialism and peace," said Mr. Grantham.

Kenneth McAllister, recently nominated CCF candidate for Victoria, said, "The chances for the CCF have never been better than in the coming election. I am proud to stand for the CCF in this campaign for a just social system."

FALL FAIR WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30TH

FULFORD, Aug. 16.—The South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute met recently in the Fulford Community Hall, the president, Mrs. Robert McLennan, presiding with 11 members present.

Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting and correspondence, final arrangements were made for the fall fair, which will take place Wednesday, August 30th.

The members were pleased to hear that Mr. E. W. White had been assigned to act as official judge in the field, vegetable and flower sections, and Mr. Huggar, from the Dominion Live Stock Branch will again judge the eggs section. All will receive a hearty welcome.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. J. J. Shaw for the gift of a beautiful wool blanket, for which tickets will be sold to help raise funds for the fair.

Mrs. Robert McLennan, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Pattison were appointed on the reception committee for the dance, which will take place later in the evening of Aug. 30th. The music will be supplied by "The Islanders' Orchestra."

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 12th, at the home of Mrs. P. C. Mollet. The institute will not meet in September.

SAANICH CCF PICNIC AT ELK LAKE

ROYAL OAK, Aug. 16.—"Farmers and industrial workers of Nanaimo Riding and of all Canada should stand shoulder to shoulder for a better standard of living and a new social order," declared Ronald Grantham, CCF candidate at the Saanich CCF picnic at Elk Lake on Sunday.

"There can be no prosperity for the farmers until the people have more money to spend. Unions mean higher wages for the industrial workers. Here on Vancouver Island the C.I.O. unions of miners, loggers and fishermen have done magnificent work."

The candidate expressed his opinion that in Nanaimo Riding and throughout the country the CCF was gaining increasing support from farmers, and industrial and professional workers.

"We are at a cross roads in history, one way lies fascism and war, the other way is the CCF way to socialism and peace," said Mr. Grantham.

Kenneth McAllister, recently nominated CCF candidate for Victoria, said, "The chances for the CCF have never been better than in the coming election. I am proud to stand for the CCF in this campaign for a just social system."

DANCE FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

One of the first gay dances being staged to start the fall season is that being planned by the officers and members of Ruth Chapter, O.E.S., to be held on Friday, Sept. 8th. Tickets for this affair are now available from any member of the order.

Len Acres' Orchestra has been secured to play for dancing, which will start in the Agricultural Hall at Saanich-ton at 9 p.m.

In addition to the usual excellent refreshments served by the members there will be door prizes as an attraction.

See the Coming Events column for further details.

First Plane Lands

Chalk up a red mark on your calendar for Wednesday, August 16th, 1939 — for the first land plane, a Trans-Canada Airways cabin type commercial ship, landed on the local airport on one of the incomplete runways. We understand that Mr. Howe, Minister of Transport, and eight others then proceeded to Sidney Island by boat from Sidney to examine the proposed site for the radio beam for the guidance of fliers.

The runways at the airdrome are not as yet handed August 7th, but it is said that the landing of the big plane was accomplished with ease on one of the comparatively level runways.

We received the above news going to press.

while convinced of the justice of their cause, they occupied their present position reluctantly.

"The colonel commanding the American detachment told me that he was in the habit of replying to the British ship of war to attend divine service every Sunday, and I learned that, by a pleasing coincidence, Captain Prevost of the 'Satellite' was a man of the same character.

"The colonel said that if a single shot was fired from that vessel his troops should at once respond. 'It is almost certain' said he, 'that in that case your ships would blow our handful of men here to atoms, but 300,000 men would instantly pour in from the States and take our places.'

"Being favorably circumstanced to ascertain the merits of the misunderstanding between the two powers, I have no hesitation in saying that but for the timely arrival of Admiral Baynes, war was inevitable."

The picnic held on Saturday last was a very good get-together and social time. Despite the fact that rough seas prevented our friends from Salt Spring Island from getting over a goodly number turned out. The afternoon was spent playing horseshoes, shooting at a miniature rifle range and other pastimes. Lunch was prepared by the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary and after supper there were races for the kiddies. To wind up the evening dancing on the lawn and a sing-song were indulged in. The winner of the basket of groceries was Com. Walter Jones, cake donated by Com. and Mrs. A. Gibson, Mrs. J. Wakefield; horse-shoes, A. Sansbury. Special thanks are due to Com. and Mrs. Wakefield and Com. H. Dukeman for providing the music which helped so much to make an enjoyable evening.

The affair took place at the Sidney Experimental Station.
